

KEITH NESBITT, COUNCIL MEMBER

Council Member Keith Nesbitt has been an Auburn resident since 1990. He served on the Auburn Economic Development Commission from 2000 to 2002 and was Chair of the Auburn Planning Commission from 2002 to 2004. Nesbitt was elected to the City Council in 2004.

Nesbitt serves on the following committees:

- Economic Development Commission
- Placer County Solid Waste Local Task Force
- Traffic Committee
- City Liason to the Auburn Recreation & Parks District
- City Liason to Auburn Boys & Girls Club
- Committee Member & Co-Chair of the Pedestrian Master Plan
- City Representative on the Sacramento Tree Foundation's Greenprint Steering Committee

Nesbitt is involved in Many Charitable & community minded organizations:

- Advisory Board of Salvation Army, Auburn Corps.
- Co-Chair "Hands Across Auburn", a fund raising event to restore libraries & middle school counselors to Auburn Schools.
- Member of Auburn Gold Country Rotary
- Former member, Board of Directors, Auburn Chamber of Commerce
- Auburn Chamber of Commerce Accreditation Task Force.

Nesbitt worked in design, project management and engineering support services for 20 years. Before moving to Auburn, he owned his own consulting company where he worked primarily with consulting structural engineers and engineering contractors. He provided data collection and expert witness services on structural repair litigations and co-sponsored and coordinated test programs involved in earthquake resistant design and construction. He also provided project coordination, construction management and development services to owners, builders, architects and engineers. Nesbitt has spent the last 12 years in real estate sales and financing.

Nesbitt has a degree in Liberal Arts from Santa Rosa Community College and has continuing college education in marketing, industrial marketing and economics, and real estate law, practice, finance, appraisal, brokerage and property management.

Nesbitt, his wife Ann Davies-Nesbitt and son Dylan live in South Auburn.